Campers Pleased With Jasper.

B. F. Presson, Elmer Presson and Frank Pritchard of Mabton, Wash., camped over night Sunday in the park here. They left their home in Washington May 5 and are now on their return trip after visiting in Virginia. They were highly pleased at the hospitable way in which they were treated here. They said that often on entering a town like Jasper, when they asked where they could camp the answer was "O! don't know." Motoring parties do appreciate a camping place such as Jasper offers, with plenty of shade and good water and a friendly word.

Jasper Finally Loses a Game.

Jasper ball team lost a game last Sunday to the Carthage Tigers at Lakeside, and when they lost that game they lost their first one this season. Before that they had won 6 and tied one.

Sunday's game shows a score of 15 to 6. Four errors are charged to Jasper and five to Carthage. Jasper got 8 hits while Carthage got 13. Manager Greenlee offers no alibi. It seemed to be a case of Jasper getting out of her class.

The Value of a Man.

Sam Jordan, Farmers' Institute and Country Life Lecturer of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture, is quoted as saying these words in discussing the value of a man:

"If you take a man who weighs 185 pounds, the chemical analysis will show that he is over half water; enough iron to make a nail big enough to hang yourself, enough brimstone to make about 800 matches, which is enough to kill about 400 men if applied in the right way. If your body were ground up into fertilizer, it would be worth about $1.98. That would be what you are worth, if you were dead—and that is more than some people are worth alive. The fellow who does not belong to some church or lodge, or something of the kind, is not worth two whoops in Texas. You know that it would be a good thing for some communities to have a funeral or two."

Arthur Teeter and wife, Mrs. Dora Hastings and Helen and Cecil Hastings, and Miss Ward of Nevada will leave next Sunday morning for a week's motor trip through the Ozark Playgrounds. Mrs. C. L. Hayzlett and Mrs. L. V. Nunnally will conduct the Toggery Shop in the absence of Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Teeter.

S. M. Huttsell Writes the News.

Fort Collins, Colo., July 3, 1921. The Jasper News, Jasper, Mo.

Dear Sir: Please change our address from Casper, Wyo., to Fort Collins, Colo., 425 S. Home Street. We came here from Casper two weeks ago and find this a fine town, much changed from what it was when we lived here 10 years ago. We are at the base of the Rocky Mountains and while the days are warm the nights are delightful.

We were in Casper when the big tanks of oil burned (nine of them). The loss was over one million dollars, and 60,000 barrels of oil were salvaged, but 350,000 barrels went up in flames and smoke when struck by lightning. The fire lasted two days and nights. Then we were obliged to move by high waters which verged on a flood.

Hoping this finds our Jasper friends well.

S. M. Huttsell.

Bonds Defeated at Jasper.

The Jasper Special Road District held an election Tuesday to vote on a bond issue of $40,000 to improve the roads in that district. The vote was 232 for and 200 against the proposition. The editor of the Jasper News uses some pretty strong language about the men who were responsible for the defeat. We know how to sympathize with Brother Drake but on a much larger scale. Jasper and vicinity have a lot of can be got over roads but here in Barton County we have to go down to a substrata to find anything to hold an embargoed Ford. That nice little clause giving one-third the voters the power to block progress is what defeated Jasper and it was the weight that pulled Barton down. One-third of the people need heavy pads on their breeching but any kind of an old collar would do for them as they never go up against it.—Lamar Republican.

Wanted Partner With $10,000.

Park McMahan, who always had some kind of a pot boiling when he lived in Jasper some years ago and who now lives in Pittsburg, Pa., has notified friends here that he is the inventor and patentee of the R. P. McMahan Indicator, and wants a partner with $5,000 or $10,000 to manufacture and market his device. Park invites his capitalist friends here to look into this at once. This indicator is intended to protect an auto from thieves.

Big Fair Opens August Second—Thousands Plan Pilgrimage in Carthage.

From present indications never in the past 20 years have such large crowds planned to visit the Southwest Missouri Fair, which opens at Carthage, August 2 for four days.

Big premiums will attract the best horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens, rabbits, pantry stores, fine arts and school displays. Merchants and manufacturers will show their newest wares and the annual baby and auto shows will be included to make the 1921 Fair the best ever.

The Editor a Grandfather.

An 8-pound baby girl was born to C. L. Woodard and wife at Oswego, Kans., Saturday morning, July 9. Mrs. Woodard was Miss Lida Drake before her marriage.

Patterson & Rex shipped a mixed car of cattle and hogs Monday.

You've Got to Pay

Mr. Home Owner: You can't escape the cost of painting. You may take your choice of letting your buildings rot and decay which is the most expensive way, or for a few dollars you can buy White Lead and Linseed Oil, which is much more economical. Let me give you free advice about painting. I have been selling paints for 28 years and can tell you something about paint and will furnish you paints that fit. Stocks complete and prices in most instances far below a year ago. Paints and Varnishes for every purpose.
